XanthoMax[®]

XanthoMax is a wellness supplement with the only natural ingredient, Xanthohumol, that helps your body release elevated amounts of Oxytocin, commonly referred to as the hormone of happiness.*

Xanthohumol acts as an antioxidant, known to help protect against damages from oxidative stress*, caused by sun exposure, environmental pollutants and inflammation inflicted by stress and poor nutrition.*

Turmeric, the second main ingredient in XanthoMax is specifically known for its anti-inflammatory properties.*

Both help keep your body strong and healthy –and HAPPY!*

Using liposomal technology, XanthoMax bypasses the stomach and releases nutrients to be absorbed by the cells of the small intestine.*
